

Brook Poston
Associate Professor of History
Stephen F. Austin State University
postonb@sfasu.edu

Education:

2012, PhD	History	Texas Christian University
2004, J.D.	Law	University of Kansas, School of Law
2001, B.A.	History	University of Kansas

Teaching Experience:

2012-present, Associate Professor
Stephen F. Austin State University

-Both History Surveys, Constitutional History, U.S. Presidency, The Age of Jefferson and Jackson, Senior Seminar, Graduate Seminar in the Early Republic.

2011-2012, Teaching Fellowship

Texas Christian University

-The American Revolution

Books

Country's Curse: James Monroe, the Founding Fathers, and the Rise, Fall, and Rebirth of Political Parties (Manuscript in Progress)

Parallel Lives: The Romans and the Founders (Under contract with Routledge)

James Monroe: A Republican Champion (University of Florida Press, February 2019)

Articles

“The Three-Fifths Clause” in Contesting the Constitution: Congress Debates the Missouri Compromise, 1819-1821. William S. Belko ed. Columbia, MO, University of Missouri Press, 2021.

“A Bolder Attitude: James Monroe, the French Revolution, and the Making of the Monroe Doctrine,” The Virginia Magazine of History and Biography, 124, no. 4 (November 2016): 282-315. (Winner of the VMHB William M.E. Rachal Award for best article of the year)

“Republican Partners” in A Companion to James Madison and James Monroe. Stuart Leibiger ed. New Jersey: Wiley-Blackwell, 2013.