Teaching Experience

Clinical Instructor, Social Work

Stephen F. Austin, Nacogdoches, Texas

09-2016-Present

I am assigned to teach primarily in the undergraduate program. I teach across the curriculum to fulfill my role and duties in the school of social work. I advise a large number of assigned students per semester. I am also entering into my fourth year of being the academic advisor of the Student Association of Social Workers (SASW) Organization. As of December 2018, I am certified as an on-line instructor. I have been involved in several research projects, grants, initiatives, and presented in several local conferences.

Adjunct Instructor, Social Work

08-2014-05-2015

Stephen F. Austin, Nacogdoches, Texas

I taught students in the undergraduate program for one year. I was part time for the academic year of 2014-2015. I primarily taught the Social Work 300 Junior Practicum. I served as both the instructor and the faculty liaison of this particular class. For this class, a student centered learning environment was developed to assist the students with what they were learning in class as well as what they are observing in their assigned field placement. Throughout this academic year, I developed relationships with the field instructors as well as the field director of the school of social work.

Adjunct Instructor, Human Services

08-2012-05-2015

Angelina College, Lufkin Texas

I taught in the Human Services Department part-time for the academic years of 2012-2015. I was primarily assigned to first and second year college students in the Human Services that was preparing to be a Licensed Chemical Dependency Counselor (LCDC). I also provided additional support to the Human Service Department as I taught a variety of classes to students pursuing their Associates Degree in Human Services. I arranged and maintained office hours for students who needed assistance with assignments and test. Hy-bird courses along with Blackboard were utilized in this program.
